AUTOBAHN INDOOR SPEEDWAY TRANSITIONS TO K1 SPEED AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (June 2024): Palisades Center is thrilled to announce that Autobahn Indoor Speedway has officially transitioned to K1 Speed, the world's largest indoor electric kart racing operator. This change brings a new era of excitement and innovation to the venue.

K1 Speed is renowned worldwide for its state-of-the-art indoor karting facilities, and this transformation promises to elevate the racing experience for all visitors. With a focus on cutting-edge technology and a commitment to providing a thrilling yet safe environment, K1 Speed is set to become the premier destination for casual consumers, motorsport enthusiasts, and corporate or group events.

Visitors can look forward to:

- Longer Leagues: Eight-week leagues will expand to year-long leagues under K1 Speed.
- E-World Championship: The National Championship is becoming international with K1 Speed's E-World Championship, featuring one of the largest karting prize purses globally, alongside heightened competition and prestige spanning over 80 locations and seven countries.

- New Paddock Lounge Café: Providing guests with more food and beverage choices.
- Arcade: Featuring an array of video games, prize machines, and skill-based games for all ages

“K1 Speed’s reputation for excellence in the karting industry is unparalleled,” said Darrin Houseman, General Manager at Palisades Center. “We are excited to welcome K1 Speed and are confident that this will be a fantastic upgrade for our visitors, providing even more unforgettable experiences.”
